

REMEDY-ONE

Marketing

Direct Paid Internship

Graduate/Undergraduate Students

Company Description:

RemedyOne (www.RemedyOne.com) specializes in digital technologies including state of the art design, custom web applications and Internet consulting. RemedyOne is delivering a number of online solutions to corporate and small business clients nationwide and internationally. RemedyOne's flagship product "Cactus 3" is a unique application that allows businesses to edit and maintain their site's content and information in real-time by simplifying data publishing and enabling up to the second communication with customers.

Founded in 1999, RemedyOne has extensive programming experience and works closely with companies worldwide. The company is based in San Diego, California with two additional offices in San Francisco and Europe.

Internship qualifications:

2-4 years of college. Good research and communication skills. Ability to work in a team environment. Internet research experience and languages is an asset.

Internship description - Marketing Research:

Position involves handling marketing research online and test web applications developed by RemedyOne. Staff assistant with developing marketing materials, flowcharts, and web presentation materials. Monitor and analyze test results. Assist our staff in proposal writing and web content research.

To apply please contact Mr. Olari Koresaar at olari@remedyone.com